The following web-resource bibliography was compiled through various web searches. This bibliography contains diverse viewpoints and varying organizational goals and as such, should not be interpreted as either a comprehensive collection or a recommendation of specific organizations. All bibliographies are in PDF format.

AIDS.gov
Website: http://www.aids.gov/
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/AIDSgov
Youtube: http://www.youtube.com/user/aidsgov
Overview:

- Attempting to raise awareness of federal programs that could help people with HIV/AIDS or increase prevention within high-risk communities
- There is a list of federal resources available including programming, policies, and funding (http://aids.gov/federal-resources/)
- A blog also keeps readers up-to-date with the most recent and relevant stories regarding HIV/AIDS (http://blog.aids.gov/)
- A link to the nearest resources near you (http://locator.aids.gov/)
- Updated frequently

American Library Association (ALA)
Website: http://www.ala.org/
Facebook: http://www.facebook.com/alalibrary
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/ALALibrary
Overview:

- Home to the professional organization called the Ethnic Materials Information Exchange Round Table (EMIERT)

  Website: http://www.ala.org/emiert/
Overview:

- The organization was first manifested as the Treatment of Minorities in Library Materials in 1967. In 1972, it was transformed into the Ethnic Materials Information Exchange Task Force. It became recognized as and received the status of a Round Table organization in 1998.
- Committee assembles resources for libraries to use to better provide information for racially minority patrons
- Provides a network for library professionals to discuss and investigate racial inequalities found within library systems in order to address these issues
- Hosts a professional organization called the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender Round Table (GLBTRT)
Overview:

- This is the first LGBT professional organization, assembled in 1960
- Maintains multiple blogs containing reading lists for different groups of LGBT populations as well as current news and events (http://www.ala.org/glbtrt/involved/social)
- Provide a network for library professionals to discuss the specific needs of LGBT patrons and ways in which these needs can be met
- Updated frequently

Audre Lorde Project
Website: http://alp.org/
Facebook Page: http://www.facebook.com/AudreLordeProject
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/AudreLorde
Youtube: http://www.youtube.com/user/AudreLordeProject
Overview:

- Located in the New York City area
- Politically advocate for social justice for LGBT people of color through community mobilization and education
- Provides a list of community resources available in the New York City area (http://alp.org/resources/nyc)
- Utilize interested participants as interns to mutually benefit the organization as well as the individual’s work experience within social justice and project management
- Updated frequently

Bisexual Stories: An Annotated Bibliography
Website: http://www.robynochhs.com/resources/fiction_bibliography.html
Overview:

- Not all of the books listed feature characters of color, but many do
- Often times, LGBT materials focus on Lesbian and Gay experiences, so this resource is specifically for members of the Bisexual community who are wanting to read stories with central characters that are bisexual as well
- Updated frequently

The BlackStripe
Website: http://www.qrd.org/qrd/www/culture/black/index2.html
Overview:

- The website says that it is moving to a new home, so the link above is the old site which will no longer be updated. It does, however, still have a lot of good information for LGBT individuals of color until the new site is up and running
- A list of books that focus on African American Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual experiences: http://www.qrd.org/qrd/www/culture/black/books/lambdarising2.html
- Has not been updated since 1997

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)
Website: http://www.cdc.gov/
Facebook Page: http://www.facebook.com/CDC
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/CDCgov
Youtube: http://www.youtube.com/user/CDCStreamingHealth
Overview:

- Governmental program that aims to raise awareness and publicity of health concerns that people face in order to promote healthy lifestyle decisions
- A large index of topics which links to pages specifically surrounding the issues surrounding them (http://www.cdc.gov/az/a.html)
- The LGBT topic page also allows for a more specific breakdown of information through the labels “Gay and Bisexual Men,” “Lesbian and Bisexual Women,” “Transgender Persons,” “Youth,” “Resources,” and “Health Services” (http://www.cdc.gov/lgbthealth/)
- A page specifically dedicated to HIV/AIDS allows for people to browse information by topics, including race and sexuality (http://www.cdc.gov/hiv/default.htm)
- Updated frequently

Cooperative Children’s Book Center (CCBC)
Website: http://www.education.wisc.edu/ccbc/books/pclist.asp
Overview:

- The link above is a direct link to a page within the CCBC’s website that specifically lists active small-press publishers or producers of children’s books that are for youth of color
- The categories of listings are as follows:
  - African American Presses
  - American Indian Presses
  - Asian American Presses
  - Latino Presses
  - Other Small Presses of Color
- This list could potentially be used for individuals to purchase materials, but it could also be used simply to find what sorts of materials are out there. If you find some books you would like to read, bring the information to the library so that they can check if they have a copy for you to check out. If they do not, you could suggest that they use this information to make some purchases to better fulfill your information needs.

- Last updated in 2008

Gay Asian Pacific Support Network (GAPSN)
Website: http://www.gapsn.org/
Facebook page: http://www.facebook.com/gapsn
Overview:

- An organization specifically for gay and bisexual Asian Pacific Islander men
- Located in West Hollywood, California
- Provide entertainment and events outside of the bar environment
- Encourage a brotherhood among the community to provide mutual support for all members
- Politically advocate for social progress
- Provide FAQs about “coming out” as well as the meaning of “gay”

- Updated frequently

GLBT National Help Center
Website: http://www.glbtnationalhelpcenter.org/index2.html
Overview:

- Hotline (1-888-843-4564) where anyone can call for peer-counseling or information about local resources available
- Youth (25 and under) Talkline (1-800-246-7743)
- An online peer-support chat available
- A search engine to look for nearby LGBT resources (http://www.glbtnearme.org/)
- Hosts a Blog for people to obtain information as well as share their own comments (http://glbtnc.wordpress.com/)
- Updated frequently

Hispanic AIDS Forum (HAF)
Website: http://www.hafnyc.org/
Facebook Page: http://www.hafnyc.org/
Youtube: http://www.youtube.com/user/hafadmin
Overview:

- Improve awareness education and prevention of HIV transmission within the New York City Latina/o population
- Provide access to care and services for people with chronic illnesses
- Advocate politically for the healthcare needs of the community they serve
- Free services include HIV testing, condoms, and education on safe-sex practices
• Bi-lingual staff to better support their Spanish-speaking patrons
• Updates occasionally

Immigration Equality
Website in English: http://www.immigrationequality.org/
Website Español: http://www.immigrationequality.org/es/
Facebook Page: http://www.facebook.com/ImmigrationEquality
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/IEquality
Youtube: http://www.youtube.com/user/ImmigrationEquality
Overview:
• This website offers resources, particularly legal help, for LGBT and HIV-positive immigrants and their families
• Continually updating the website to reflect the most recent changes to immigration law
• Updated frequently

International Federation of Black Prides
Website: http://www.ifbprides.org/
Overview:
• A larger organization that hosts events for member groups to come together and create valuable network connections
• Posts news and events from members and non-members to raise awareness of opportunities
• Home to a resource list containing both National as well as local resources arranged by region: (http://www.ifbprides.org/ifbp_resources.php)
• Updated occasionally

International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans, and Intersex Association (ILGA)
Website: http://ilga.org/
Overview:
• This website hosts recent news articles from across the world in one location.
• An interactive map allows for users to see what sorts of laws concerning LGBTI rights are in place across the globe
• The site can be in English, French, Spanish, or Portuguese
• The option to focus in on particular regions or identity changes the theme of the main site to fulfill your information desires
• Each page has a list of words in the bottom right part of the page varying in size. Clicking on these words brings up all news tagged under the clicked term. The size of the text in the word is directly related to the number of news stories tagged by this term.
• Updated frequently
LYRIC
Website: http://www.lyric.org/home.html
Overview:

- LYRIC provides resources for many diverse populations of LGBT youth to ensure that no child will feel as though they have to change who they are in order to obtain the information and help they deserve.
- Puts on many programs to educate and train youth in order to prepare them for adulthood.
- A few of the many information resources listed under larger categories:
  - LGBTI resources (http://www.lyric.org/resources/lgbti_resources.html)
  - Bilingual resources (http://www.lyric.org/resources/bilingual_resources.html)
- Updated Rarely

Mobile Homecoming
Website: http://www.mobilehomecoming.org/
Overview:

- Two individuals, Alexis Pauline Gumbs and Julia Wallace, are traveling in a mobile home across the U.S. in order to collect interviews and artifacts from older generations of queer black women, trans men, and genderqueer individuals.
- The audio and video recordings will document and preserve a history that has drastically shaped the lives of younger generations.
- Alexis and Julia hope that increasing the intergenerational communication will help both past and present generations work together towards a better future.
- Updated frequently

The National Black Justice Coalition (NBJC)
Website: http://nbjc.org/
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/NBJContheMove
Overview:

- The National Black Justice Coalition website is home to many resources for furthering the civil rights of Black LGBT individuals.
- The key initiatives that NBJC takes on within its activism include:
  - Safe and Inclusive Schools: (http://nbjc.org/issues/safe-inclusive-schools)
  - Historically Black Colleges and Universities: (http://nbjc.org/issues/hbcu)
  - “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell”: (http://nbjc.org/issues/dont-ask-dont-tell)
In addition to explaining its position on these issues, the blog portion of the website acts as a news source which brings links to news stories specifically touching on these issues.

Updated frequently

National Institutes of Health (NIH)
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/NIHforHealth
Youtube: http://www.youtube.com/user/nihod
Overview:

- Promoting research that specifically enhances the treatment of illnesses as well as the prevention of future health issues
- Information related to men’s health (http://health.nih.gov/category/MensHealth)
- Information related to health issues specifically effecting communities of color (http://health.nih.gov/category/MinorityHealth)
- Updated frequently

National Minority AIDS Council (NMAC)
Website: http://www.nmac.org/
Facebook Page: http://www.facebook.com/NMACCommunity
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/NMACcommunity
Youtube: http://www.youtube.com/commnmac
Overview:

- This organization was created in response to no individuals of color being allowed to participate on the panel of the first American Public Health Association (APHA) AIDS workshop in 1986.
- Through political advocacy and educational program, the goal of National Minority AIDS Council is to end the AIDS epidemic
- Works with the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)
- Updated frequently

NativeOUT
Website: http://www.nativeout.com/
Facebook page: http://www.facebook.com/nativeout
Overview:

- NativeOUT is a nonprofit organization that hopes to help connect Indigenous LGBTQ and/or Two-Spirit individuals to a larger community. Through providing information on current events, news stories, and social networking opportunities, NativeOUT can be a great resource for American Indian youth struggling with their sexuality or gender identity. There are also a few local organization that offers very similar services in:

- Northeast Two Spirit Society: http://www.ne2ss.org/
- Indigenous Peoples Task Force (Minnesota): http://www.indigenouspeoplesftl.org/about.html
- Bay Area American Indian Two-Spirits: http://www.baaits.org/
- Red Circle Project (Los Angeles): http://www.apla.org/native_american/rcp/

Facebook Page: http://www.facebook.com/redcircleproject

- Updated rarely

Parents, Families, and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG)

Facebook page: http://www.facebook.com/#!/PFLAG

Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/PFLAG

Google+: https://plus.google.com/112413953598678149452/posts

Overview:

- Updated frequently

Parents, Families, and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG) for Families of Color and Allies in NYC

Website English: http://www.pflagforfamiliesofcolor.org/admin/eng_home.php
Website Español: http://www.pflagforfamiliesofcolor.org/admin/esp_inicio.php
Overview:

- A list of resources for Parents, Families, and Friends to find others who also have LGBT loved ones, book recommendations, and films to help aid in their journey towards acceptance
- Resources specifically for LGBT individuals of African/Caribbean descent (http://www.pflagforfamiliesofcolor.org/admin/eng_african.php)
- Resources specifically for LGBT individuals of Arabic descent (http://www.pflagforfamiliesofcolor.org/admin/eng_arabame.php)
- Resources specifically for LGBT individuals of Asian descent (http://www.pflagforfamiliesofcolor.org/admin/eng_asian.php)
- Resources specifically for LGBT Latina/Latino individuals (http://www.pflagforfamiliesofcolor.org/admin/eng_latinos.php)
- Resources specifically for LGBT individuals of American Indian descent (http://www.pflagforfamiliesofcolor.org/admin/eng_allies.php)
- Resources specifically for LGBT individuals of other ethnic descent (http://www.pflagforfamiliesofcolor.org/admin/eng_focn.php)
- Resources specifically for Trans individuals (http://www.pflagforfamiliesofcolor.org/admin/eng_focn.php)
- Updated Rarely

Reading in Color
Website: http://blackteensread2.blogspot.com/
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/readingincolor
Overview:

- The blogger writes reviews of young adult literature that have central characters that are non-white.
- Readers are invited to participate in conversations surrounding racial issues faced by people of color both on an individual level as well as within society in general.
- The author also creates reading challenges that encourage users to expand their horizons and read books set in regions other than ones they are familiar with.
- Updated frequently

Safe Schools Coalition
Website: http://www.safeschoolscoalition.org/
Facebook: http://www.facebook.com/SafeSchoolsCoalition
Overview:

- An international organization that aims to help make schools safe for all children despite their sexuality or gender expression
- Provides schools with information and posters to help promote inclusion
- A list of resources in spanish (http://www.safeschoolscoalition.org/RG-Recursos-en-Espanol.html)
- Many resources that can be searched by topic or target user including this area specifically for youth desiring information (http://www.safeschoolscoalition.org/youth/index.html)
Updates occasionally

Safra Project
Website: http://www.safraproject.org/index.html
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#/safraproject
Overview:

- A news source and information resource for Muslim LBT women
- Offers some legal information for immigrants seeking asylum
- Provides a bibliographic list of resources used to study the specific needs and experiences of Muslim LBT women (http://www.safraproject.org/bibliography_sgb.htm)
- Updated occasionally

Satrang
Website: http://www.satrang.org/Default.aspx
Facebook Page: https://www.facebook.com/pages/Satrang-SoCal/371510574641
Overview:

- Non-Profit located in Los Angeles, California
- Provide an accepting community for all South Asian LGBTIQQ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans, Intersex, Queer, and Questioning) individuals
- Create networks for not only between members but also between other organizations with similar goals to better provide education and support for the community at large.
- Updated frequently

Sexuality Information and Education Council of the United States (SIECUS)
Website: http://www.siecus.org/
Overview:

- Provide information resources and training to increase the availability of accurate and non-discriminatory sexuality and sexual/reproductive health information
- Updated frequently

The Sylvia Rivera Law Project
Website: http://srlp.org/
Twitter:  http://twitter.com/#!/SRLP
Overview:

- The Sylvia Rivera Law Project advocates for the right of individuals to identify their gender in any way they find desirable.
- The provides legal information resources for individuals facing discrimination, specifically those that cannot afford the help otherwise.
- Updated frequently

Trikone
Website:  http://www.trikone.org/index.shtml
Facebook Page:  http://www.facebook.com/pages/Trikone/109628859056819
Overview:

- Trikone is a non-profit organization for LGBT people of South Asian descent found within the San Francisco Bay Area
- While some of their events and resources may only be accessible to people who live in the area, the website still offers web-resources to those members of the community who may not be able to physically visit the center
- Composes a biannual magazine
  o Website:  http://www.trikone.org/subscribe.shtml
  o Facebook Page:  http://www.facebook.com/trikone.magazine
- Recently began collecting video interviews of “out and proud” members of the community which are posted directly to the site.
- There are a few other branches of this organization that have been founded since
San Francisco’s founding in 1986 including Trikone-Chicago:
  Website:  http://www.trikonechicago.org/Home.aspx
  Facebook Page:  http://www.facebook.com/trikonechicago
- Updated occasionally

True Colors: Sexual Minority Youth and Family Services
Website:  http://www.ourtruecolors.org/
Facebook Page:  http://www.facebook.com/ourtruecolors?ref=ts
Myspace Page:  http://www.myspace.com/ourtruecolors
Overview:

- Non-profit organization that works with other organizations to advocate for the needs of sexual and gender minority youth
- Provides training to social workers and other professionals within youth services to increase their understanding of the complex needs of LGBT youth and youth of color.
- Organizes the largest LGBT youth conference in the country
- Updated occasionally
WomensHealth.gov
Website: http://www.womenshealth.gov/
Facebook Page: http://www.facebook.com/HHSOWH
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/WomensHealth/
Youtube: http://www.youtube.com/user/WomensHealthgov
Overview:

- Assembling resources into one central location in order to help raise awareness of women’s specific health needs
- Advocate for women’s health to be priority when establishing national health policy
- Updated frequently

Zuna Institute
Twitter: http://twitter.com/#!/zunainstitute
Overview:

- A national advocacy organization for Black Lesbians
- Attempts to break down the barriers Black Lesbians face due to their sexuality in the Black community, their race in the LGBT community, and their race, sexuality, and gender within society in general
- Bridged together various chapters of Black Lesbian organizations under a larger national organization that holds a biennial conference
- Updated occasionally

2009 Directory of LGBTQ People of Color Organizations and Projects in the U.S.
Overview:

- While this list is a few years old, it still contains a large list of organizations which could lead to finding local organizations within various areas of the U.S.
- Not updated, this is a link to a .pdf file